

Professional Association of Volunteer Leaders - Ontario

LEADING VOLUNTEER ENGAGEMENT

The PAVRO Young Leader Award

The PAVRO Young Leader Award is a newly created award to recognize and encourage excellence in the up and coming generation of leaders within the Volunteer Engagement profession. It acknowledges a professional, aged 35 years and younger (age 35 within calendar year award is presented) who is working directly in the profession and has demonstrated leadership and excellence in Volunteer Engagement either within their organization and/or PA research or submissions to projects such as the Marilyn Mackenzie Innovation Pilots, etc.

The successful recipient will receive a $100 credit towards PAVRO activities or events (Conference, workshop or membership) and a personal letter will be sent to the recipient's supervisor to inform them of the award.

Complete this form and send, along with a copy of the nominee's resume, to the PAVRO office so it is received by the deadline of March 15, 2018. Please note that no other documentation will be accepted or reviewed. Thank you for taking this opportunity to recognize one of your colleagues and the value of the profession.
